November 2010

Dear Colleagues and Friends:

Welcome to the Fall 2010 Conference of the Association of Inspectors General. The conference promises to be exciting and beneficial, as our planning committee has invested countless hours to make it a premier event for you. We look forward to an exciting few days.

Previous conferences have attracted preeminent speakers from areas critical to our field and this conference is no different.

Under the leadership of Steve Pasichow, the conference planning team and the New York/New Jersey Chapter have worked diligently to put together an exciting and focused agenda bringing together experts and visionaries from the Inspector General, law enforcement and private communities. We hope you will have an interesting, challenging and educational few days and enjoy this opportunity for networking, collaboration, sharing of technical information and the building of trust relationships nationally.

As always, we extend a warm welcome to all our colleagues who share our interest in enhancing public trust in government. If we can do anything to make your stay more pleasant, please let us know. Thank you for joining the Fall Conference of the Association of Inspectors General.

Warm Regards,

Melinda M. Miguel
