

Tanisha L. Carr
Tanishawms@aol.com

POSITION TITLE: Lead Inspections & Compliance Specialist, Office of Professional Responsibility, Immigration & Customs Enforcement, U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

EDUCATION: Mrs. Carr earned her undergraduate degree in December 1997 from the University of Maryland at College Park with a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice. She holds a Master's degree from the University of Maryland University College in Criminal Justice Management since December 2013. Currently, she attends Capella University working towards a Doctor of Philosophy in Public Safety Leadership with a specialization in Emergency Management with a tentative conferred date of October 2018.

PERSONAL STATEMENT: Mrs. Carr has the leadership experience and commitment needed to fulfill the duties and responsibilities to serve on the Board of Directors. Her background touches many facets of public safety at the local and federal levels of government. Her professional career experience spans 20 years of experience as a deputy sheriff, investigator, probation and parole officer, and inspector.

CAREER POSITIONS: Mrs. Carr began her career in 1996-1998 while attending the University of Maryland at College Park working part-time as a Drug Surveillance Monitor with the District of Columbia Pretrial Services under a High Intense Drug Trafficking Area grant for two years. From 1998-2001 she became a Deputy Sheriff with the Arlington County, Virginia Sheriff's Department assigned to the detention facility; 2001-2007, Deputy Sheriff for the Prince George's County, Maryland Office of the Sheriff assigned to the Bureau of Court Services District and Circuit Courts and the Bureau of Field Operation's Landlord & Tenant Division conducting evictions. Next, from 2007- 2011 she became a Criminal Investigator/Special Agent, District of Columbia Office the Inspector General. She began her Federal Government career in 2011 with the Court Services & Offender Supervision Agency from 2011-2014 as a Federal Probation/Parole Officer in the Women's Mental Health Unit; 2014- 2017 General Investigator, Office of the Naval Inspector General; and presenting working for the US Department of Homeland Security.

COMMUNITY CONTRIBUTION: From 2003-2011, Ms. Carr has been a Co-Advisor for the Prince Georges County Explorers Post 1696 for young women and men age 14-20 years old who are interested in gaining insight into the field of law enforcement.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP: Association of Inspectors General, National Chapter (2014-present), Association of Inspectors General, D.C. Chapter (2007- present).

Tanisha L. Carr
Sept. 6, 2018

STATE OF MARYLAND
COUNTY OF PRINCE GEORGE'S
The foregoing instrument was acknowledged before me this 6th day of Sept. 2018, by TANISHA L. Carr //
Brenda Griffin
Brenda Griffin Notary Public
My Commission Exp. 9/25/2021