

June Jennings

June W. Jennings serves as the Deputy Secretary of Finance in Governor Ralph S. Northam's administration for the Commonwealth of Virginia. Ms. Jennings previously served in this same capacity under Governor Terence R. McAuliffe. Ms. Jennings advises and assists the Secretary of Finance in the administration of the Commonwealth's financial responsibilities. She provides guidance and direction to four state agencies including the Department of Accounts, Department of the Treasury, Department of Planning and Budget and the Department of Taxation. Her audit and investigative background have become a crucial resource to the administration.

Prior to her appointment as Deputy Secretary of Finance, Governor McAuliffe appointed Ms. Jennings to serve as the State Inspector General. Ms. Jennings also served as the agency's Deputy Inspector General. While working for the Office of the State Inspector General, Ms. Jennings was instrumental in the creation of a new inspector general agency within the Commonwealth of Virginia. Ms. Jennings was responsible for the creation of an agency structure, establishing and recruiting for new positions, establishing and executing an agency budget and creating investigation and audit divisions within the agency. Ms. Jennings has over 32 years of experience overseeing and conducting audits and investigations of state agencies.

Ms. Jennings received her Bachelor's Degree in Accounting from Radford University. She is a Certified Public Accountant and Certified Inspector General. Ms. Jennings currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Association of Inspectors General and is a member of the Professional Ethics Board of the Association of Government Accountants. She is also an active member of the Institute of Internal Auditors and the Virginia Association of Chiefs of Police.
