

September 5, 2018

AIG Recommendation for Nomination to the Board of Directors

Nomination for Dr. Leigh Anderson - City of Chicago Office of Inspector General

Biographical Sketch

Dr. Leigh R. Anderson currently works as Chief Performance Analyst in the newly created Public Safety Section of the City of Chicago Office of Inspector General where she leads and conducts audits and evaluations of the Chicago Police Department (CPD), Civilian Office of Police Accountability (COPA), and the Police Board (PB) to increase public safety, protect civil liberties, and increase the public's confidence in the City of Chicago Public Safety Structure.

Dr. Anderson is originally from Saint Louis, Missouri. She graduated, summa cum laude, from Howard University with two bachelors' in administration of Justice and Spanish. She went on to graduate from John Jay College of Criminal Justice's Masters of Public Administration-Inspector General Program, and then obtained a Ph.D. in Public Policy and Management from The Ohio State University.

Dr. Anderson has worked with various agencies such as the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the District of Columbia Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency, the US Department of Health and Human Services, the Federal Emergency Management Agency, and the District of Columbia Office of the Inspector General auditing, evaluating, analyzing, researching, and providing recommendations to internal and external stakeholders regarding various program practices, policies, and directives.

Dr. Anderson is the coauthor of the book "Policing in Natural Disasters: Stress, Resilience, and the Challenges of Emergency Management" (Temple University Press) as well as coauthor of "Coping through a Disaster: Lessons from Hurricane Katrina" (Journal of Homeland Security and Emergency Management). Dr. Anderson has taught various courses at Howard University such as Police, Law and Society; Criminology; Principles of Criminal Justice; and Victimology.

State of Illinois County of Cook

Signed (or subscribed or attested) before me on 9/5/2018 (date)

by Le'loni English (name of person).

[Signature] (signature)

(seal)

[Signature]
signature of notary public