

ASSOCIATION OF INSPECTORS GENERAL

Diversity and Inclusion

Mission Statement

An important and integral mission of the Association of Inspectors General is to intentionally foster institutional equity, diversity and inclusion by providing strategies to bring to life the vision of inclusive excellence for current and future members of the AIG, its leadership, and through its training and peer programs, which create progressive opportunities reflective of the diversity of the entire OIG community.

Vision Statement

The Association of Inspectors General leverages a diverse and inclusive workforce to help make the association a leading institution where achieving equity is a high priority as it promotes tangible results in the following:

- ❖ Promoting Public Accountability - in the areas of prevention, detection, and elimination of fraud, waste, and mismanagement practices.
- ❖ Effective Outreach – by ensuring diversity initiatives are created to attract and retain diverse volunteers' reflective of the communities we serve.
- ❖ Enhance Training Designed to Motivate and Improve – setting a priority within AIG's training programs of including a diverse talent base of instructors and by developing and delivering diverse training focused on building awareness and sensitivity to cultural competencies in a welcoming environment that nurtures mutual respect through practical establishment of professional qualifications, certifications, and licensing.
