Robert E. Clift
A Private Sector Public Servant™

Bob has worked in law enforcement and accountability assurance positions for more than 40 years.

During a 24-year U.S. Air Force career, Bob served as a Special Agent with the Air Force Office of Special Investigations (OSI). Bob focused on conducting and leading Department of Defense procurement fraud and crimes against persons investigations.

Bob began a State of Florida career in 1997 as the Director of Investigations for the Florida Department of Transportation's Office of Inspector General. He and his section investigated internal and external crimes and misconducts impacting the Department with a focus on contract crimes resulting in a financial loss to the Department.

Bob was appointed by Florida's Chief Financial Officer as the Inspector General for the Florida Department of Financial Services in 2007 where he led professional audits, consulting services and employee misconduct investigations.

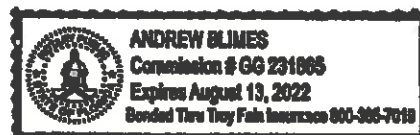

In March 2011, Bob returned to the Florida Department of Transportation as the Inspector General where he and his 42-person OIG team focused on adding value to the Department by performing and producing comprehensive audits on high risk programs, and investigations into allegations of frauds and misconducts. Bob retired from the State of Florida in 2018 after 21 years of service.

In 2019, Bob opened Integrity One Investigations Consulting and Training, LLC. In this endeavor, Bob works with agencies to design processes and deliver programs that reinforce the integrity of agency employees. Bob also helps agencies train their teams to plan, conduct, and document defensible internal investigations to address allegations of violations of conduct standards or other agency rules. In select circumstances, Bob works side-by-side with agency teams to enhance the timeliness and sufficiency of specific investigative work products.

Bob has received the Certified Inspector General and Certified Inspector General Investigator designations from the Association of Inspectors General. Bob is currently serving the Association as First Vice President, and Chairman of the Professional Certification Board. In this role, Bob has trained, and overseen the certification of, hundreds of Certified Inspectors General, Certified Inspector General Investigators, and Certified Inspector General Auditors. In addition, Bob is the immediate past president and remains a current board member, of the 450 member Florida Chapter of the Association of Inspectors General.

Bob is a graduate of The Florida State University with a bachelor's degree in Criminology.
