

Jeffrey R. Clark, Sr.
Inspector General
Commander, US Naval Forces Central Command
Manama Bahrain, 09805

Mr. Jeffrey R. Clark Sr. has an extensive professional portfolio spanning over thirty years in the public and private sector, academia, as well as community outreach and non-profit board leadership. He currently serves as the Inspector General for Commander, US Naval Forces Central Command. In his capacity he is the principle advisor to the Commander for all Inspector General Matters. Mr. Clark also serves as the Commander's representative to review, inspect, investigate or otherwise inquire into all matters concerning the command and subordinate commands throughout the area of responsibilities

Mr. Clark was previously employed with Naval District Washington as the Inspector General. In his capacity, he had oversight responsibilities for seven Navy Installations throughout Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia. Mr. Clark planned command inspections, compliance inspections, and special interest item reviews for the 105 programs.

Mr. Clark is a highly respected Navy veteran with 31 years of faithful and dedicated service. Prior to his retirement from the US Navy, Mr. Clark served as the Senior Enlisted Advisor for the Office of the Naval Inspector General. He was responsible for directing all functions associated with the health and welfare of 275,000 enlisted personnel in the United States Navy. He also developed and delivered ethics curriculum, including realistic training scenarios, decision-making case studies, and best practices techniques for all Navy Senior Enlisted Personnel.

Mr. Clark has earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Liberal Arts and graduated from the Navy Corporate Business Course at the Naval Post Graduate School in Monterey, California. He is a member of the Association of Inspectors General. Mr. Clark is a Certified Inspector General, Certified Investigator and a Certified Inspector/Evaluator. Additionally, he is certified with the Department of Defense Joint Inspectors General, and the Office of the Naval Inspector General.