MISSION
The Association of Inspectors General
Seeks to Provide Leadership in the Promotion of Accountability and
Integrity in Government.
Membership

Join other professionals in their commitment to Enhance Public Trust in Government.

Benefits of membership include:

- Joining a network of professional, qualified, and dedicated officials;
- Professional contacts that can help enhance your career;
- Receiving the Association's newsletter which contains information about the investigative field and the latest information on the Association's plans and activities;
- Discounts on registration for Association conferences and training institutes;
- Members-only access to the Association's website;
- Improving your professional knowledge and skills; and
- Contributing to the development of best practices.

Here are the various categories of membership in the National Association:

- Regular membership includes all membership benefits, including voting rights.
- Agency membership is open to governmental agencies and includes all membership benefits, including voting rights.
- Student membership is open to undergraduate or graduate students at a college or university and includes all membership benefits excluding voting rights.

The NY/NJ Chapter offers Regular and Student memberships.

The Association provides excellent learning and networking opportunities through conferences and institutes. Guest speakers address a variety of topics that cover audit and investigative activities that support the Inspectors General's mission. Members receive continuing professional education (CPE) credits by attending these sessions. The NY/NJ Chapter meets more frequently throughout the year offering similar services.

Inspectors General are generally responsible for initiating, conducting, supervising, and coordinating audits and investigations designed to detect, deter, prevent, and eradicate fraud, waste, mismanagement, misconduct, and other abuses.

Goals

Foster a standardization of practices, policies, conduct and ethics; encourage professional development by providing and sponsoring educational programs; establish professional qualifications, certifications, and licensing; conduct joint educational ventures; and exchange information and ideas and identify trends.

History

The Association of Inspectors General was officially established on October 26, 1996, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
